

GRITS: GOODS! HERE AT LAST!

L. GAUCHAT. JEWELER,

57 FRANKLIN STREET, Special attention to repairing Watches Clocks, Jewelry and Fancy Goods. All work mch.6-tf.

S. B. STEWART,

Drugs and Medicines.

Paints, Oils, Toilet Articles,

Stationery, School Books, Etc. (Stand formerly occupied by McCauley & Co.)

Clarksville, Tenn. I cordially invite my friends and former patrons to come and examine stock and prices.

August 10, 1878-tf

WARFIELD,

The Peoples Drug Store!

Franklin Street, - Clarksville, Tennessee, Keep constantly on hand a full supply of Pure Drugs, Stationery, Fancy & Toilet Articles, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Paint Brushes, School Supplies, etc.

Prescriptions accurately compounded both night and day.

Respectfully. J. F. WARFIELD.

PITMAN & LEWIS, FASHIONABLE CLOTHING.

HATS, FURNISHING GOODS.

Clarksville, Tennessee.

GRANGE

Warehouse Associa'n, weekly Chronicle.

Tobacco and General Commission Merchants,

Clarksville, Tennessee.

T. HERNDON, Superintendent.

JAS H. SMITH, Inspector.

All Tobacco will be insured while in store in our Warehouse in Clarkscille, until sold, at the expense of the owner, whether advanced on or not, unless we have written orders from the owner not to insure.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS;

Franklin Bank. FRANKLIN STEEET. CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

BUYS AND SELLS EXCHANGE

if Woolen Socks. V. L. WILLIA

WILLFAMS

A beautiful stock of

And a full line of all the late styles

Jentlemen's fine hand-made

BOWLING & WILSON.

HATS CAPS.

THE FAVORITE

the

THOROUGHLY TESTED

"HOMESTEAD"

TOBACCO GROWER.

Field Seed

FOR SALE BY

SIXTY-FOUR YEARS

CLARKSVILLE

ESTABLISHED 1809.

One of the Oldest Newspapers in the Southern States. Contin-name since 1833.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS

MADE TO MEET AN

Immense Patronage

A Paper for the Farmer, Mechanic, Business Man, and Family Circle. A

News. Subscribe for it.

ONLY $2.00 PER ANNUM.

Weekly Compendium of Local, County, State and Foreign

ued under its present

CRUSMAN

Landreth's Garden Seed,

Continuous

RUBBER BOOTS and OVER-SHOES

ments to country merchants. Respectfully,

SEAL SKIN CAPS.

in Gent's fine

NEW YORK, MEMPHIS, NEW ORLEANS, CINCINNATI, LOUISVILLE, NASHVILLE, SAINT LOUIS,

And all accessible points. Prompt Attention to Collections. W. S. POINDEXTER, Cashier,

HOW HE GOT OUT OF IT: OR. Engaged to Three Girls in One Night.

up his struggle with the impossible, and laying the refractory paper-knife upon the table, "for a variety of Ladies, Misses, and Children's and with Miss Kate."

Boots and Shoes! girl, and has lovely eyes. Hasn't

Also, all the late styles and novelties

Also of the head with a dramatic gesture. "I seldom visit the clouds," said Lilly, with a short but bitter laugh.

And I certainly know he made me a noble offer of his hand and heart; the clouds, "I seldom visit the clouds," and only one," said Wilding, slow-leave in the next town," said Mr. Snooks, "I seldom visit the clouds," and only one," said Wilding, slow-leave in the next town," said Mr. Snooks, "I seldom visit the clouds," and only one," said Wilding, slow-leave in the next t Shirts, Ties and Underwear!

Any style of Boot or Shoe made to order. The best material used and the most skilled workmen employed. Remember the Blue Front Store. Call and examine our goods. Special induce "One would think that I was a raw school-boy," said young Smooks wrathfully. "Do you think I can't look at a woman without committing myself? Do I look like a fool?"

As Wilding gave vent to his idea, be turned abruptly on his beel and whatever Mr. Wilding thought at that moment, he kept it to himself. Before he spoke again, he and his conscience had agreed to dissemble.

left the room.

"I'll do it," said Snooks valiantly, drying his eyes and giving his breast a tragic tap, "whatever comes of it."

FERMILIZER

Well, yes, I dare say I shall look "Then I shall look in with you," said Snooks, defiantly.

"Fact is, the fellow wants to spoon her himself, and don't see the force of being cut out," said he to himself complacently as he ran down the store of Wildhey's store.

Stars and up the dark a few minutes since was her sister's happiness.

There he proposed and was accepted. Het indeed was a degree of the store of Wildhey's store. Of the Tobacco Growing States is the steps of Wilding's stairs.

Lime, Plaster, &c.,

she had neither nose nor eyes like her sisters, had certainly a prettier mouth than either; a sweet little kissable rosebud of a mouth that it may sound, I don't want to mar-first half-hour kept himself bravely aloof from her fascinations, declined ing driven into a corner during a fatal set of Lancers, he met her eyes and was conquered. She would dance the next with him? Yes (coldly). And the next? Yes (more gently). And the ninth—he can see she is disengaged for it? Yes this time quite warmly).

An hour later the deed was done.

Some gently characters and mitted was done.

An hour later the deed was done.

Some gently characters and mitted was done.

Mr. Snooks, if I were you, I should go in and say good-night to mamma, because you have been having a good deal of papa's champagne, and it is trying to the constitution.'

Snooks took the hint, bade farewall to Snooks. But at least he gave him an increased desire for his bed, because for a fortnight afterward he never stirred out of it.

When Mr. Wilding heard of all whe

Chinese lanterns there originally, but a kind wind had blown them "W out), and a soft little hand, slipped into his, did the work; and Miss Katie had promised bashfully, but with unmistakable willingness, to be the future Mrs. Snooks. Whether it was Snooks or the process.

deponent sayeth not. membered his former words, and all voce. the awfulness of parental wrath, his heart failed him. He weat, as he "Well, she refused me; sort of said usually did when in sorry case, in search of Wilding; and having discovered him, took him into a side

"I always knew she was one of "Wilding," desperately, "can't you do something? I—I dont know how it happened. It was the champagne, I suppose, and of course she is pretty; but I don't want to marry anyone, and I know the governor with a conscious blush, "It is very won't hear of it."

won't he?" asked Wilding unfeel-"If you will take my advice," said Mr. Wilding, making a last noble but futile effort to balance the

"I don't see what that's got to do with it," said Snooks, sulkily.
"There's safety in a multitude. I can't marry 'em all, can I?"
"Happily, no! though, if the laws of your land did not forbid it, I am inclined to think you might try to accomplish even that. Still, be advised, Snooks, and be conspicuous 'small and early.' Papa Brownrig, 'when incensed, is not nice, and you know you are decidedly intimate with Miss Kate."

"No, I am not," said Snooks, and you in the next house if you don't work and it wou in the next house if you don't work and it wou in the next house if you don't work and it wou in the next house if you don't work and solver?"

"Arr. Snooks," said she with dowbcast eyes and a timid smile. She took up the corner of a cherry-colored bow that adorned her gown, and fell to admiring it, through which she fondly thought she exhibited great bashfulness.

"Impossible!" exclaimed Georgie its lieve the room, and you too, to your fate. It's downright indecent. They will hear you in the next house if you don't what is it you say? Oh, I am going out of my mind; my sen'es going out of my mind; my s ter of a mile off, this was rather se-

"I'll do it," said Snooks valiantly, gated scoundrel asked you even hint at such a thing," he said amiably. "I only meant that you were slightly—very slightly—susceptible, and that Miss Kate has a certain amount of pleasing power, and that—I positively would give and that—I positively would give him to come straight to her on the wings of love, he turned and asked their to dance.

"He was urunk, said Katie, agely.
"I can't believe it," said Katie, who was dissolved in tears—in fact, 'like Niobe, all tears'—by this time, 'like Niobe, all tears'—by this time, 'Nothing could be nicer than the way he did it. His language was so perfect, and so thoroughly from Going into the hall he saw Hetty

They danced, and then (it was a the-heart." custom with the ball-goers in that mild suburban neighborhood) he drew her out under the gleaming stars and up the dark avenue that a few minutes since was the scene of the minutes of th indeed, was a degree more pro-nounced than Katie's, because she "I ce Beyond all question the Brownrigs' ball was a decided success.

The rooms were filled to overflowing, the staircases were choked, the

The rooms were filled to overflowing the staircases were choked, the bound to kiss her. Her nose looked heat was intolerable. Sir Thomas and Lady Higgins had actually put in an appearance after all, and the supper, if uneatable, was, I assure you, very expensive. No pains or money had been spared; everything was what the mistress of the house called "rug regal;" and all the Miss Brownrigs looked as charming as anyone could desire.

There were four of them. There was Katie, the second daughter— Snooks' friend, and the possessor of the lovely eyes. And they were lovely; large, "and dark, and true, and tender," like the north, according to the laureate; "black as sloes," said her fond if slightly oppressive mother, and of the languid, melting order.

The staircases were choked, the bound to kiss her. Her nose looked lovely in the pale moonlight; so I dare say he did not find the fulfilling of the itle and the property of the say he did not find the fulfilling of the itle and the property. It thought the title and the property of the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought the title and the property, and I said yes directly."

"I thought of the title and the property of the title and the property.

"I thought of the title and the property of the title and th mother, and of the languid, melting order.

Then there was Hetty, the eldest girl, who, if her eyes were not dark as midnight, had at least the dearest little nose in the world. A pure est little nose in the world. A pure of course, ended the conversation.

Greek feeture perfect in every research of the conversation.

So he asked her to come for a stroll "Don't be a goose, Katie," said the youngest Miss Brownrig, kindly, but scornfully; "you don't suppose any of us would marry him now, after the way he has behaved? Do have some little pride."

"Don't be a goose, Katie," said the youngest Miss Brownrig, kindly, but scornfully; "you don't suppose any of us would marry him now, after the way he has behaved? Do have some little pride."

Greek feature, perfect in every respect, ignorant of colds in the head, that made one long to tell her (only she would have blushed, they were all nicely brought up) about Dudu and her Phidian appendage.

Then came Georgie—"George the Third," as she was playfully termed.

Third," as she was playfully termed.

Third, "as she was playfully termed"

To be asked the conversation. So he asked her to come for a stroll instead, and having arrived at the instead, and having Third," as she was playfully termed in the bosom of her family—who, if her.

"Dear me, how shocking!" said until half-past five; and then he took up a certain heavy gold-hope time will mend it. I'm not knobbed whip that lay stretched on

"Well?" said the latter interrogit was Snooks or the property per-taining to Snooks she most affected, deponent sayeth not. "And they accepted you?"

"Most of 'em. But Lilly, the youngest, she—" room, and shutting the door, confronted him with a rather pale face.

"So the eyes were too many for you?" said Mr. Wilding calmly, after a deliberate examination of the disturbed face before him. "I always knew she was one of the most intelligent girls I ever met." Mr. Wilding repeated, in a tone so decided that his companion for once had sufficient sense to refrain from demanding an explanation.

"I always knew she was one of the wice president. Should he die, the Oregon legislature, being republican, will send a republican successor, and in such event the Republicans would have the senate.

would have been so aggravating; oned her) she almost ran into the recover to take his seat in the senwould have been so aggravating; and just when you see I'm down on my luck, too. Yes; I've been and gone and done it."

"Mother will be pleased,"" they entered Mr. Brownrig's study, with a shrug, "And so, by the bye, will be your father. They both regard nothing so highly as birth. I suppose Miss Brownrig that the sum into the arms of her three sisters, all converge to take his seat in the sent arms of her three sisters, all converging to the same spot from different direction. Simultaneously they entered Mr. Brownrig's study, (He called it a library; but that wo witnesses. It will consume your griefs as the sun dissolves ice. It is a spring when you are thirsty, astaff when you are weary, and a pillow in death.

THERE will be four negroes in the next Georgia Legislature. Can any state at the north show as practical a recognition of the rights of the colored citizen?

can lay claim to some decent breeding?"

"I had a proposal last night, papa, and I have come to tell you about it," said she, in a tone replete with whisper. It was a stage whisper. "Old Major Sterne," said Miss

"He will have to hear of it now, on't he?" asked Wilding unfeelogly.
"He would go out of his mind if the would go out of his mind if noble but futile effort to balance the paper-knife on the tip of his first finger, "you won't go to the Brownig's ball."

"And why not?" asked his companion, irritably.

"Well, I really wouldn't, you know," said Mr. Wilding, giving up his struggle with the impossible.

"Be would go out of his mind if such a thing was even hinted to him," declared Snooks wildly.

"Try to help me out of it, Wilding, with sandy hair and flabby nose. He was a powerful man, too, and one unpleasant to come to open quarrel with. Proposals in the Browning family were few and far between—in fact, curiosities—and ler will get on. And you should so much lack as the cirls described. ler will get on. And you should so much luck as the girls described with the most vicious classes to preached the doctrine of debt-scale think of her beauty, you know; falling into one day overpowered doubtless it will console you when him.

of reasons. Girls play the very mischief with you, and you know what trouble it gave me to get you out of your last scrape. There are four Brownrig girls, aren't there? And they are all pretty?"

"I don't see what that's got to do with it," said Snooks, sulkily."

"There's safety in a multitude. I

As the nearest house was a quar-are deserting me," said Georgie, putting her hands to her head with

> At this they all groaned aloud. 'Perfidious monster!" said Hetty from her heart.

Whatever Mr. Wilding thought that moment, he kept it to him-"Am I to understand," began Mr. marry him last night?" "If we speak the truth, yes," plied the girls dismally.

"He was drunk," said papa, şav-

She was thinking uneasily of that

There he proposed in due form, and was accepted. Hetty's conduct, Sterne anywhere about at the mo-

"Then I shall sit here till 4," returned Mr. Browning in an awful aloof from her fascinations, declined to notice her reproachful glances and languishing cellades, and for reward was wretched. Finally, being driven into a corner during a languishing driven into a by his washerwoman, who peeped through the keyhole, performing a wild dance in the middle of the floor. Nevertheless, floor my own interests around me.

One Man's Life.

found what he had done, and re- girl," put in Mr. Wilding, sotto touching the health of Senator Grotend the sessions of the senate, the republicans will, with Mahone's regardless of how Mahone might told you how it would be."

The next morning as Miss Katie

"That's the sort of thing any fellow might say," returned Snooks pathetically. "I didn't think you to the control of the contr

FORNEY'S SUMMING UP. The Veteran Journalist on the Night of Tuesday, November 2d, be," said Snooks, with a heavy groan.

"O, indeed! And a very charming business, too, I have no doubt. Leads up to quite a train of ideas. Corn, wheat, staff of life, quaint old and all betrayed a smile of inward satisfaction, and they gave way to sance, miller sitting on it. I wonder," dreamily, "if Brownrig ever der," dreamily, "if Brownrig e beth; thou shalt be King hereafter." real repudiationists to expose them-First, the general of our armies, How wonderful the resemblance!

And mark what Macbeth said of his dream of ambition to his wife in his letter describing his interview:

The latter course, though nobody's devising, but in the natural drift of a presidential canvas, has deen followed and with the most gratifying result. then president, and king hereafter.

When I burned in desire to question | the party in Virginia. In Ten

Why not, gentlemen? The path of empire is as plainly reached by the present triumph of money over truth, as if it were lighted by a new planet. The means and the coven-army of officeholders are organized, whose boast it was a little while ago backed by a battery of banks—these the forces to fight, and Garfield the instrument to lead to the throne in gressmen. Secure in his senatorinstrument to lead to the throne in gressmen. Secure in his senator-1884. That is the plot. It is bold. It is clear. Are you ready for it? ous part in national politics, for they answer: Ready, aye ready any delay. They have a thousand by either party with which he may nterests to preserve their ranks, local duties and local candidates, his repudiation baggage behind. He and now to these they add the im- and every sensible man in the south conspiracies of empire. A perpetual guard of officeholders, an exhaustiess treasury, public and private, a stuborned press and a great community of reluctant slaves at the policy of repudiation. polls, mean empireand nothing else. I am only one of the millions who voted for Hancock to-day, and what I can do to aid in this great work is Ex-Senator Aicorn, of Mississipp ready. The democratic party holds the fort of the future. Its reserve is the refuge of all brave men pledged

A Blast From Ben. Hill.

And no man knows what he did the south will not countenance it. to Snooks. But at least he gave The poor, divided and abused south, as before, will get no credit for it! we shall avert all revolution, not to

The Defeat of Repudiation. One of the things from which good is a very pretty girl. Such eyes, you know! I really congratulate you, my dear fellow."

"The curate," said Hetty in a composed but plainly contemptuous whisper. It was a stage whisper.

"Wilding," desperately, "can't "Old Major Sterne," said Miss own party as venal and corrupt. What a comment on the Vox populi vox Det. As I recall my own part in this last drama with pride unspeakable, regretting only that I could not do more—I would to-mor-is, the repudiation party, most construction. row repeat the act of gratitude to a great soldier—I feel that the men who have done this thing will soon feel the chastening rod of their own consciences. An act more cruel, causeless and shameless was never justment that caused the movements perpetrated. Men calling them-selves better than others have and Arkansas. In neither of these wrought a work of hate without states was there ever a formidable parallel. The over-virtuous of great | number of voters who were at heart communities have-struck hands repudiationists, But demagogue spread the infection of a new sectionalism among a forgiven people, and as they see whom they have struck and whom they have lifted political vagaries were tolerated but up over Hancock, they turn from all subordinated to the desire to get But let the past go. Let the dead past bury the dead. We now face the empire, and there is but one in the only element which made things at all dangerous. The colored voters having no organization of their own great force to meet it—the demo-cratic party. Garfield only fills the way without white leadership, had gap for Grant. I write his name no hesitation in making a coalition with a new feeling, that of proud with the Readjusters, their reward regret that one I loved so well being the few crumbs of patronage should sink so low. First the de- that might fall from the table of the fender of the forgiven south, then latter in the hour of their success. its defamer. First eager to honor It was such a coalition that gave Hancock for his virtues, then to Virginia and a senatorship to Mahound him as an enemy. And this hone. It was such a coalition, upon is the man who now wants to play which chairman Jewell had brenththe part of king hereafter. How, in ed a blessing, that gave the repudi the part of king hereafter. How, in the face of all these loud shouts over the defeat of Hancock, I think of the scene on the blasted heath where Macbeth meets the weird sisters:

"First Witch—All hall, Macbeth; hail to thee, Thane of Glamis.
"Second Witch—All hall, Macbeth; hail to thee, Thane of Cawdor.
"Third Witch—All hail, Macbeth; then shall be King hereafter."

de a blessing, that gave the repudiations to require atonists a hope of carrying Tennessee and Arkansas. One way to break it up was the slow process of enlightening the colored people, who formed the greater bulk of the part they were made to play. Another was to call honest repudlicans and honest people, who formed the greater bulk of the part they were made to play. Another was to call honest repudlicans and honest people, who formed the greater bulk of the part they were made to play. Another was to call honest repudlicans and honest people, who formed the greater bulk of the part they were made to play. Another was to call honest repudlicans and honest repudlicans.

> In Arkansas, two months ago, the "They met me in the day of suc- repudiation party was crushed to cess, and I have learned by the per-fectest report that they have more in them than mortal knowledge. There was a similar demolition of them further, they made themselves air, into which they vanished. While I stood rapt in the wonder of debt-scalers, the popular verdict was it, came missiles from the king, sounmistakably on the side of hones who hailed me 'Thane of Cawdor,' ty that the debt-scalers will hardly ty that the debt-scalers will hardly by which title before these weird have the hardihood to make anoth sisters saluted me, and referred me | er fight except in a covert way. In to the coming in of time with 'hail! king thou shalt be!' This have I thought good to deliver thee, my dearest partner of greatness, that thou mightest not lose the dues of national committees of both of the rejoicing by being ignorant of what great political parties, ands himself greatness is promised thee. Lay it routed horse, foot and drugoons, to thy heart, and farewell." The republicans went their way and The republicans went their way and ants are all patent to one end. An country as the party of Readjusters, Over four million of democrats there is coming on a close Congress. voted for Gen. Hancock to-day; onal contest, in which his vote will be an object of competition; but to There should be no despondency or be considered respectable or useful conclude an alliance he must leave perative call to active and constant must see that this dalliance with work against the clearly defined dishonesty is not only wicked but all their nakedness and weakness

REPUBLICAN MISTAKES.

on Carpet-Baggers Brooklyn Engle Interview.

turning."

"He said something to papa about calling to-day at 4 o'clock," said tory, let the democracy of the whole nation set their houses in order for the great struggle of the luture.

tory, let the democracy of the whole to run for office. Right or wrong, it was a source of irritation to the south to see absolute strangers, milsouth to see absolute strangers, mil-itary intruders, administering the offices and courts—in the tax offices, kissable rosebud of a mouth that pouted and laughed alternately, and did considerable execution.

And finally, there was Lilly, a sonoks, hastily. "Well, that's awfully horizon and great deal of determination all round.

Katie's eyes were larger, darker, and (when she looked at Snooks and thought of the thousands) more melting than ever that night. Her melting than ever that night. Her menting than ever that night heart."

The democratic party is hated at then orth, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republican party is hated at the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republican party is hated at the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the thousands in the sheriff's office, on the bench. If the result of the battle had been than a wiful to me. "I shall sit here until 5; and then I shall get up and go out and find that young man, and give him such a horse-whipping as I warrant up with a start; "I don't mean that, you know; I mean it's awfully horizon and thought of the thousands) more melting than ever that night. Her menting that the north and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the horse, and the north and the north and the north and the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the horse, and the north and the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the horse whipping as I warrant to use it shall be north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. The republicanty of the horse whipping as I warrant ity is hated at the north, and therefore it ought to be disbanded. in the sheriff's office, on the beach powers delegated to it by the con- same in all parts of the world, but stitution it is as much a nation as it is more passionate and instinctive but for one fact, and that one fact is flection on the course of events, his him an increased desire for his bed, it necessary, will once more save because for a fortnight afterward he the country from a revolution, and, welcome in the party. If he had An hour later the deed was done. Some capital champagne, a dark avenue (I believe there were some Chinese lanterns there originally, but a kind wind had blown them. ing my own interests around me win republican praise or to avoid But when Gov. Ames came to Mi republican abuse (for either is im- sissippl he had not the least mental possible), but solely because it is toleration for men like myself. He right, and we are determined to preserve the peace of the country. not like our temperament, our man-When, however, her betrothed "I always said she was a sensible There is considerable inquiry How long human nature can stand pirtues at all, they were rather in ver, of Oregon. Just now his condition is an object of very tender solicitude. Should be be unable to atsame prejudice. He never would keep any promises with the native white southern republicans, nor give them anything to exercise an influence with. When I was in the BRADSTREET's paper says: "Whisky, Kentucky's famous product. shows a larger percentage of increase than any other single interest. Not only in Louisville, but throughout the whole state, new distilleries are springing up old ones being remodeled, and their capacity increased. It is safe to say that Kentucky distillers are prepared to furnish 300 per It is safe to say that Kentucky distillers are prepared to furnish 300 per cent more whisky this year than last. Not only this, but of the large crop thus forthcoming a large proportion has already been contracted for."

It is safe to say that Kentucky distillers are prepared to furnish 300 per cent more whisky this year than laterally. He will break a political promise is not part of his integrity. He will break a political promise as quick as anybody I know. While president, Governor Ames and myself not being able to agree, he gave Ames everything be wanted and he gave be not part of his integrity. He will break a political promise is not part of his integrity. He will break a political promise is not part of his integrity. He will break a political promise as quick as anybody I know. While president, Governor Ames and myself not being able to agree, he gave Ames everything be wanted and he gave the underlying health and the promise is not part of his integrity. He will break a political promise as quick as anybody I know. While president, Governor Ames and myself not being able to agree, he gave Ames everything be wanted and he gave the promise as quick as anybody I know.